Friend of Comiskey Makes This Declaration, Saying That Official Announcement Will Come in Chicago Next Week.

J. Franklin Baker, home run king of Connie Mack's former pennant trust, will wear the livery of the Chicago White Sox next year. This positive declaration was made yesterday by a bosom friend of Charles A. Comiskey, who is in town on business. The transaction will be announced officially at the American League meeting in Chicago next week, it was stated. The informant insisted that his identity should not be disclosed.

Of the Chicage Cubs, was a visitor at the offices of President John K. Tener of the National League yesterday. Mr. Taft, as usual, excused with a smile the veiled implication that his visit East might have something to do with the sale of the Chicago Nationals. President Tener was likewise evasive.

Football Insurance Is Professor's Idea

DITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 9.—Dr. Francis Newton Thorpe, head of the political science department in the University of Pittsburg, in discussing to-day the fatalities of the football field said that universities and colleges cannot be held responsible for personal injuries to players and advocated the adoption of an accident policy system on the part of the athletic associations of the schools. He said that thousands of dollars are taken in at the gate for football games and sufficient money should be taken from this fund to pay doctor bills and to afford financial relief in case of accident, fatal or otherwise. This system would do away with the objectionable practice of passing the hat for players that have been

JOCKEY CLUB PASSES TWO-YEAR-OLD RULE

Kentucky and Canada Agree That Youngsters Must Not Be Raced Before April 1.

An important step was taken by the Jockey Club at its regular monthly meeting yesterday in passing a resorace before April 1. This rule was proposed by Capt. E. B. Cassatt last spring with the idea of doing away with the injury to the breeding industry caused by the racing of immature thoroughbreds. It was contended that many animals are regard by many valuable animals were ruined by taking part in races for two-year-olds as early as January and in the winter posed the sentiment of members of the Jockey Club was in favor of the prohi-bition, but in order to avoid a possible clash with the racing interests of Kentucky and Canada the matter was left in the hands of August Belmont to confer with the officers of the asso-Yale Club Player Defeats Club Player Defeats State and the Dominion. Mr. Belmont conferred with Johnson N. Camden, chairman of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, and W. P. Fraser, chairman of the Canadian Rac-ing Associations, and on his report the following rule was passed: "No horse foaled in 1915 or there-fter shall run in any race before April I of his two-year-old year, under penalty of thereby disqualifying himself for all races under these rules until December 31 of his two-year-old year." Those present at the meeting were: F. K. Sturgis, H. K. Knapp, Capt. E. B. Cassatt, P. J. Dwyer, Robert L. Gerry, F. R. Hitchcock, Foxhall P. Keene, I. M. Parr, Jr., Schuyler L. Parsons and John Sanford.

Baltimore yesterday it is probable that the indoor championship meeting of the Amateur Athletic Union will not be held in that city. Shortly after the annual meeting of the A. A. U. it was announced that Baltimore that applied for the indoor games, which were conducted at a loss in New York last season. With Baltimore out of the field the games probably will be held in this city, but in an armory instead of in Madison Square Garden as heretofore.
